

I am writing to express my concern over the recent BPL issues. As a licensed amateur also working in the public safety radio communications field, I feel the interference potential from BPL is far too great to be allowed without significant further study. I would hate to see existing Part 15 regulations be relaxed at the expense of licensed services.